DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 2 is finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In this case, the use of “consisting of” and “also consisting of” in lines 8, 11, 15 is improper because the first “consisting of” statement excludes a possibility of “also consisting of” statement for the same structure (in this case, indicia). Also, “consisting of at least one” in line 21 makes the claim language confusing because, once “consisting of” is used in the claim language, no more than one structure (in this case, common indicia line) can be claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2859

2. Claim 2 is finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Marshall (U.S.RE 37212E) in view of Jones, Jr. (U.S. 5335421) [hereinafter Jones] and the Prior Art as stated in Fig. 1 by Sarasin (U.S. 4970797) [hereinafter Prior Art].

Marshall discloses in Fig. 1 a tape comprising a leading edge, a trailing edge, two longitudinal edges and a central portion; first indicia positioned along the entire length of the central portion of the tape, the indicia spaced at a distance D1 (1/8 or one eights of inch); second indicia positioned along the length of a first edge A, and equally spaced at a distance D2 which is different from the distance D1 (one inch); and third indicia positioned along the length of a second edge B, and equally spaced at a distance D3. In a broad sense, the tape of Marshal's is considered to be "disposable", since it can be disposed when it is damaged or worn out (the numerals A-B, D1-D3 have been added by the Examiner, see attachment # 1 to the Office Action).

Marshall does not disclose that the third indicia spaced at the distance D3 which is different from distances D1 and D2. In addition, Marshall does not explicitly state that the tape is disposable. Also, even though since the central portion indicia is a fraction of the indicia of the first edge A and the second edge B, there inherently will be times when a common line can be drawn through entire face of the tape from the first edge to the second edge, Marshall does not explicitly shows said common line.

Jones discloses in Fig. 1 a device in the field of applicant's endeavor, the device comprising a third indicia B equally spaced at a third distance D3 (as shown in Fig. 1, the distance D3 is equal 2/16 of inch) and located at a second edge of a tape 5 (the numerals B, D3 have been added by the examiner, see attachment # 2 to the Office action).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the third indicia of the tape disclosed by Marshall with a third indicia, as taught by Jones, so as to have an edge with further different indicia/ different fractions of inch, than the other indicia in the tape in order to allow the user to measure different object with the desired accuracy relative to inch.

Prior Art shows in Fig. 1 a tape having a common indicia line extending through all three indices on a front face of the tape (see attachment # 3 to the Office Action).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add a common indicia line extending through the front face of the tape, as taught by Prior Art, to the tape disclosed by Marshall, so as to allow the user to take the measurements in whole numbers and in fractions at the same time, and also to see the relationship between the measurements taken in whole and fraction numbers at a short glance.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection necessitated by the present amendment.

Art Unit: 2859

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art cited in the PTO-892 and not mentioned above disclose related devices..

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to the Examiner Verbitsky who can be reached at (703) 306-5473 Monday through Friday, 7:30 to 4:00 ET.
